

Technical Officials Dress Code Update

Following the recent update from Swim England in relation to the dress code for technical officials, the county has updated their guidance below – please note that the dress code may vary at other competitions, and so please check this for each meet you are attending.

The dress code for County competitions for technical officials is as follows –

- Wear club/county/regional official polo shirts
- White or black trousers or leggings
- White or black shoes suitable for poolside